

Below is a website brief you can copy/paste and give directly to the web designer.

Website Creative Brief

Brand: Ranch Capital Lending / Real Estate Ranch

1. Main Goal of the Website

The client wants a clean, professional lending website that positions Ranch Capital Lending as a real estate and business funding company.

The website should make it clear that the company helps real estate investors, brokers, and business owners get access to funding for different types of deals.

The website should not feel overly complicated or flashy. The client specifically wants it to be simple, direct, and lender-focused.

The site should also connect back to Real Estate Ranch, which is the community/event/networking side of the brand.

2. Main Brand Structure

There are two connected brands:

Primary Website Brand

Ranch Capital Lending

Suggested descriptor:

Real Estate & Business Funding

This is the lending company.

It should focus on:

Fix & Flip Loans
Bridge Loans
New Construction Loans
Rental DSCR Loans
Commercial Loans
Business Loans
Transactional Funding
Broker Partnerships
Investor Partnerships

Community Brand

Real Estate Ranch

Suggested descriptor:

Investment & Business Community

This is the meetup/community/networking brand.

It should be included on the website, but it should not overpower Ranch Capital Lending.

Simple explanation:

Real Estate Ranch is the community. Ranch Capital Lending is the funding arm.

3. Brand Positioning

Main Positioning Statement

Ranch Capital Lending helps real estate investors, brokers, and business owners access funding for real estate and business opportunities. Through Real Estate Ranch, the brand also connects people with relationships, education, investors, sponsors, and deal opportunities.

Simple One-Liner

Real estate and business funding for investors, brokers, and operators who are ready to move.

Best Website Tagline Options

Primary recommendation:

Funding Deals. Building Relationships.

Other good options:

Where Real Estate Deals Meet Real Capital
Capital for the Deal. Relationships for the Growth.
Built for Investors. Backed by Relationships.
Real Estate Funding Made Practical.
Bring the Deal. We'll Help Find the Path.

4. Website Style Direction

The website should feel:

Professional
Clean
Modern
Trustworthy
Relationship-driven
Investor-focused
Simple to navigate
Premium but approachable
Texas/ranch-inspired, but not cheesy cowboy

Avoid

Do not make it look like an old western saloon.
Do not use cheesy cowboy fonts.
Do not overload the site with too much text.

Do not make it look like a generic mortgage company.
Do not make it too corporate or cold.

Recommended Visual Direction

Modern Texas finance brand.

Use clean typography, bold sections, simple grids, warm neutral colors, and strong calls to action.

Suggested colors:

Black
Warm ivory
Bronze/gold
Deep green
Sand/tan
White

Suggested feel:

Clean lender website mixed with subtle ranch/capital personality.

5. Main Website Navigation

11. About Page

Page Title

About Ranch Capital Lending

Main Headline

Built on Capital. Grown Through Relationships.

Copy

Ranch Capital Lending was created to help real estate investors, brokers, and business owners find practical funding solutions for real opportunities.

The brand is built around a simple belief: real estate is a relationship game. When someone brings a deal or funding scenario, the goal is to help review it, understand the need, and find the right path forward.

Through Real Estate Ranch, the brand also creates a community where investors, brokers, lenders, sponsors, and business owners can connect and grow together.

Founder Section

Add a founder section for Kel Balase.

Suggested copy:

Kel Balase is the founder of Ranch Capital Lending and Real Estate Ranch. His focus is helping investors, brokers, and business owners connect with funding, relationships, and opportunities in the real estate space.

16. Important Client Preferences

The client said:

They want the website built soon.

They want it simple and clear.

They want the website to focus on Loan Programs, not “Services.”

They want to look like a lender, not a company that does everything.
They want brokers to know they are welcome.
They want investors to have a place to connect.
They want the Real Estate Ranch brand included as the meetup/community side.
They want Ranch Capital Lending to be the lending side.
They want content to support future social media and events.
They want the website to help people submit deals and contact them quickly.
